Untamed
at heart

A new 5-star resort is taking shape, blending modern elegance with vibrant lifestyle amenities.

Inspired by the graceful branching of a banyan tree, The Wylder's design weaves nature into every corner-its façade, corridors, and terraces forming a living tapestry of light, shadow, and greenery. Sustainably sourced materials and a grounded structure create harmony with the streetscape, while open-air walkways and quiet green pockets invite pause and reflection. An elevated, poetic rhythm of life rooted in place.
